

Goal of the overview will be to provide a possible view to some of the challenges faced by elected and appointed officials (in particular town administrators, Finance Directors, etc.) by mid-decade (2014-2017 period)

I'll start with an overview of the constraints faced by the State with respect its own ability, or lack thereof, to redirect or enable municipalities to better serve residents

I will admit at the start that my intent is to be a bit provocative to – hopefully – generate a productive range of ideas and views
